

INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY AND WATER COMMISSION
UNITED STATES AND MEXICO

For Immediate Release
September 14, 2026

George Etheridge V named Attorney-Advisor to USIBWC Commissioner

George Etheridge V has been named Attorney-Advisor to Commissioner Chad McIntosh at the U.S. Section of the International Boundary and Water Commission (USIBWC).

The appointment was announced by Commissioner McIntosh.

Attorney-Advisor Etheridge comes from Etheridge Law, PLLC, where his practice covered business and real estate contract drafting, document review, and negotiations.

Earlier in his career, he served as Senior Advisor for Public Engagement at the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. He also served as Associate In-House Counsel for a renewable energy development company.

Attorney-Advisor Etheridge earned a Bachelor of Science in Finance and a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of Florida. He received his Juris Doctor from Florida State University College of Law.

For more information:

Frankie Pinon
Public Affairs Officer
Frankie.pinon@ibwc.gov
(915) 471-2980

The mission of the U.S. Section of the International Boundary and Water Commission is to protect Americans from exposure to Mexican sewage, ensure fair allocations of water from the Colorado and Rio Grande Rivers, efficiently and effectively maintain and operate critical flood infrastructure, and reduce border flood hazards.